Saturday Showcase

August 7 at 10:00am

Actor's Workshop has enriched and entertained the lives of actors in the Triad since 1992. The SUMMER ACTING INTENSIVE and SHOWCASE is designed to enhance the skills necessary for success in theatre, commercials, and film. This concentrated session will develop the actors understanding of the techniques required to increase confidence in auditions and in stretching to tackle more challenging roles. Eclectic in its approach and relentless in its effort, the class helps the actors reach their highest potential. The focus of the intensive is not only on acting skills and talent, but on marketing and the "business" of show business.

The intensive concludes on Saturday, August 7. At this time the class will perform monologues and commercials for a panel of theatre professionals, casting directors, and talent agents who will critique each student's work. In past years, many of the participants have found representation and made contacts that have promoted their careers. The session will conclude with a panel discussion/question and answer period with the entertainment professionals.

INSTRUCTORS

Collectively, Donna Bradby, Deborah Kintzing, and Camilla Millican Samuelson have over 60 years of experience in the profession. Ms. Bradby works as a professional actress, director, teacher, and choreographer. She has toured extensively with the North Carolina Touring Theatre Ensemble and directs regionally for such companies as Triad Stage, Broach Theatre, Temple Theatre-Sanford, and the Barn Dinner Theatre.
